INTRODUCTION OF JUDGES

Laura Besati (Italy)

I started my carrier in the dog world at twentytwo years old. In 1995 it's arrived my first poodle Zobie la mouche di Samarcanda, with him I have learned to move my first step in the ring.

By attending the dog show I have had the opportunity to meet the American cocker and a new love was born.

For over twenty years I breed black poodle medium and dwarf and American cocker with affix Deigini. In 2015 I have passed the exam to become FCI expert judge and now I can judge some breeds in the group 8 and 9. Since 2019 I'm the president of Italian federation groomers in Lombardy.

Some of my own dogs results in the world - poodles:

Multi ch Jaset Britney Deigini (Thalula) - Ch USA, BOS WDS '15 in Milan

Multi Bis Chanel (Memole) - PCA 2010 Best Bitch

Multi ch Celestino (Cele) - JBOG EDS '08 Bucarest

Multi Bis Ninija Kamui (Ninija) - Ch USA, BOB EDS '18 Warsaw

Multi ch Emma Morrone Deigini - Ris JWDS '15 Milan, JEDS '15 Oslo, BOB EDS '16 Bruxelles

Multi Bis Heidi Klum Deigini (Heidi) - BOB EDS '12 in Bucarest, BOS WDS '13 in Budapest

Multi Bis Quando nasce un amore Deigini (Serenella) - BOS WDS '15 in Milan, BOS EDS '12

Andrea Ernst (Germany)

In 1973 my parents bought their first poodle, a black Dwarf. They began to exhibit him at shows. Of course, I was always with them and fell in love with black Miniature Poodles. I was absolutely in awe with the size and colour. After long talks with my parents, I convinced them that we must have a black Miniature Poodle. They purchased my first black Miniature Poodle in 1978 and with that, it all began!

I became a member in the Association of the German Poodle Friends or VDP in 1980. In the same year I requested rights from the FCI to have the Kennel name “Vom Badener Rebland” protected. In 1981 the first Miniature Poodles were born.

In the last forty-two years my Poodles have had lots of successes in National and International Shows. So far, fifty-six of them have become national and international Champions.

I have been a Poodle Judge since September 2002. Until 2005 I was only allowed to judge Poodles in Germany and after that also in other countries.

It is very interesting to judge Poodles in different countries. Where else do you have a first-hand chance to see and touch Poodles in different sizes and colours? It makes me very happy when I am allowed to judge beautiful Poodles.

There is nothing more beautiful than when a Poodle reveals with his posture and his expression that the world is his. Each dog is individual and not perfect. As a judge I have to make the decision how much I can accept the degree of imperfection.

Mhairi Aikman (United Kingdom)

My love of Poodles began in the late 70's when I fell in love with a beautiful brown Standard. Her owner allowed me to borrow her for junior handling competitions, taught me to groom, then generously gave me a puppy.

A visit to the All Winners show in Amsterdam introduced me to the exciting white Standard Poodles of Carlos Fernandez-Renau and Juan Cabrera. I was given Del Zarsoso Palomo at Namkia to show in the UK. He became a UK champion and sired five UK champions, four of which were group winners. These included the Crufts group winner Ch Davlen the Beloved and Ch Montravia Don Fernando, both of whom were multiple BIS winners and were Top Utility winners in the Top Dog of the Year competition. The other two were my own Ch Montravia Donna Rosa of Namkia and Ch Whittens El Hombre del Namkia.

Another group winner for me was Ch Del Zarzoso Fin de Siglo at Namkia, however my most thrilling win was when I got the grandson of Palomo, Ch Penling By Design at Namkia, won the group at Crufts 2003.

I have also made up six other UK champions, plus won CCs or RCCs with several more, sometimes in other people's ownership. Other breeds shown include Miniature Poodles and Keeshonden.

INTRODUCTION OF JUDGES

I handled the BIS winning Ch/Am Ch Del Zarzoso Salvame to Afterglow's mother to 2 CC wins for Carlos Fernandez-Renau. And we were both crying when her grandson Ch/Am Ch Afterglow Maverick Sabre won BIS at Crufts 2014.

I first judged Poodles at open show level in 1986 and was passed by the British Kennel Club to award CCs to Standard Poodles in 1992.

Below is a summary of my championship Poodle judging appointments:

1992 Driffield Agricultural Society - 97 standard poodles

1995 South Western Poodle Club - 97 standard poodles

2003 Poodle Club of Scotland - 69 standard poodles

2007 WELKS - 93 standard poodles

2012 Birmingham National - 69 standard poodles

2014 City of Birmingham - 62 standard poodles

2020 Crufts – 161 standard poodles

2004 British Utility Breeds Association – 96 miniature poodles

2006 Windsor – 54 miniature poodles

2009 Driffield – 54 miniature poodles

1999 Northumbria Toy Poodle Club – 60 toy poodles

2003 Windsor - 90 toy poodles

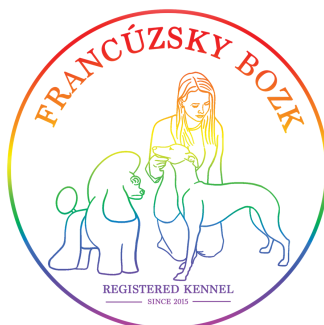

2010 BUBA – toy poodles

1998 Finnish KC's Winners Show – Standard and dwarf poodles

2003 Australian National Poodle Club - 3 sizes and BIS

2009 Norwegian Poodle Club - 4 sizes and BIS
